

When I come

(What will you do?)

Words: Kenneth Carveley

Music: David Lee

In free rhythm

When I come in the guise of the need - y, the help - less, the cold and the hun - gry, the strang - er, the lone - ly will you look a-way?

What will you do? What will you say?

When I come close to home in the need of your neigh - bour, at times in-con-ve - nient, in pla-ces and fa - ces that mask and con-ceal me...

What will you do? What will you say?

When I come in the mes - sage of pro - phet and preach - er, in truths in - es - ca - pa - ble or words which dis - may, will you lis - ten to me and give me a wel - come? What will you do? What will you say?

When, face to face at the end of the jour - ney we look at each oth - er, will you look a - way? What will I do? What will I say?

To be sung in free rhythm. Keep it simple.

Contrasting voices may be used for different verses, and also, perhaps, for the "What will you (I) do/say?" questions.
