1. O - ver the dark - ness, the waste and the wa - ters,
2. In - to your world which had lost your di - rec - tion,
3. Cru - ci - fied Je - sus, the Light we ex - tin - guished,
4. In - to our lives, in our dark - ness and doubt - ing,

G Am7 G D

God, you spoke or - der; your breath danced and weaved.
you spoke to Ma - ry, she brought you to birth;
life of the world come to death on the tree,
Christ, speak your peace, give your light to our strife.

G/B Em Am7 Dsus4 D

Pierc - ing the cha - os, your voice sang cre - a - tion:
Word of the Fath - er, de - fence - less a - mong us,
death could not hold you, as ear - ly that day - dawn,
Grant us the cou - rage to live as your i - mage,

G Am7 G D

"Let there be light", and the light came to be.
 Light of the world come to dark - ness of earth.
 quiet - ly God raised you; from death you leapt free.
 Fa - ther and Son and the Spi - rit of life.
