Words: Marjorie Dobson
Music: David Lee

The musical score is written for a piano and voice. It features a treble and bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with the bass clef providing harmonic support. The lyrics are written below the staff, with two verses indicated by numbers 1 and 2. The score is divided into four systems, each with a measure number (1, 6, 12, 17) at the beginning. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at various points. The lyrics are as follows:

1. A rich young man came seeking God's
2. The rich men's gifts were lavish and king - dom was his aim. The law had been his made for pub - lic show. The wi - dow's gift was guide - book His life was free from blame. hum - ble and on - ly God would know,

But Je - sus asked the cou - rage to give his in giv - ing to the Tem - ple, al - though her sor - row, that price he would not pay.

mean - ing be - cause she gave her all.

3. One boy brought loaves and fishes, no other food was there, but Jesus fed the thousands and still had bread to spare.
The miracle of plenty soon spread beyond that place
That simple gift was offered, then multiplied by grace.

4. Lord, keep our care for money from turning into greed.
Help us to use it wisely to meet each other's need.
For whether poor or wealthy we have so much to share and open-hearted giving will show your loving care.

This may be used either chorally or by music-group.

The guitar chords are slightly simpler than the keyboard accompaniment. Both may be adapted, especially when used together. The chords may be further simplified, perhaps one per bar, as suits environment and ability.
