You are my hid-ing-place, you will pro-ect me in trou-ble.

You will sur-round me with songs of de - liv'-rance.

- 1 Blessed are they whose iniquity is put away
and whose sin is forgiven:
blessed are they whom the Lord declares blameless,
whose soul does not hold any guile.
- 2 While I kept silent, I wasted away,
with my daily complaining and moans.
Your hand was heavy by night and by day,
sapped my strength, like a summer of drought.
- 3 Then I acknowledged my sin to you then I owned up to my guilt and my shame.
I made confession of all my transgression and you pardoned all and forgave.
- 4 Let everyone who is godly and faithful make prayer to you while you are near,
so when the floodwaters threaten to cover us
we need not worry nor fear.
- 5 I will instruct you and give you direction,
will counsel you, show you the way.
Act with integrity, show understanding and choose to be free to obey.
- 6 Unlike the wicked whose woes will surround them
the godly will dwell in his love.
Sing and be glad, O you righteous of God,
and rejoice, O you upright of heart.
