

Not to us, Lord, not to us

Psalm 115: 1-8

Words and music: David Lee

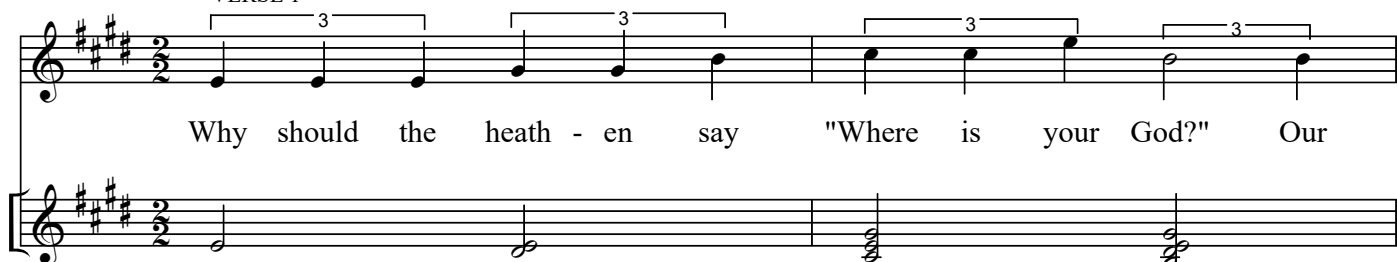

RESPONSE

Fine

Not to us, Lord, not to us but to your name be glo-ry giv'n.

VERSE 1

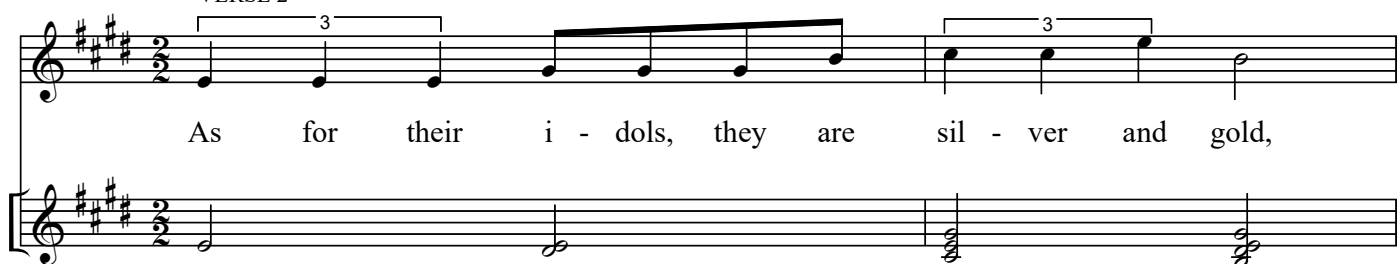

Why should the heath - en say "Where is your God?" Our

D.C. al Fine

God is in hea-ven: he does what - so - ev - er he wills.

VERSE 2

As for their i - dols, they are sil - ver and gold, work of hu - man hands: mouths they have but speak not,

eyes they have but can - not see, ears they have but hear not,

no-ses they have but can-not smell hands they have but hand-le no-thing,

D.C. al Fine

feet they have but tra-vel no-where, in their throat they make no sound.

VERSE 3

Those who make i - dols them - selves shall be like them,

D.C. al Fine

so shall ev' - ry - one that in them mis - pla - ces their trust.
