

My soul waits for God in the silence

Psalm 62

Words and music: David Lee

RESPONSE

My soul waits for God in the si-lence, from him comes my sal - va-tion. The Lord is my re - fuge and sav - iour, my strong tow - er keep - ing me sec - ure.

VERSES

1. How long will their plot - ting and their schem - ing con - ti - nue?
2. Trust in him at all times and keep faith, O you peo - ple.

Seek - ing to des - troy me with their lies? Smiles on their fac - es but Pour out all the long - ings of your hearts. God is your re - fuge and

Cm7 G/B Cm/Bb Am7(b5) D7(b9)/F# D/F#

wiles in their spi - rits: emp - ty and dark in their hearts.
 God is your glo - ry: God is your rock and your strength.

RESPONSE (FINAL)

Descant

My soul waits for God, my soul waits for God.

Gm D/F# Gm Gm/F Eb Cm Dsus4 D

My soul waits for God in the si - lence, from him comes my sal - va - tion. The

The Lord is my tow - er keep - ing me sec - ure.

Bb F/A Gm Gm/F Eb Cm Dsus4 G2

Lord is my re - fuge and sav - iour, my strong tow - er keep - ing me sec - ure.

3 Set your heart against the exploitation of others:
 cheapen not your life at any price.
 Set not your heart on the world and its riches
 but on the fulness of God.

4 God has spoken once and twice and still he is speaking;
 power and glory emanate from him.
 Constant in goodness and constant in loving:
 justice is tempered with grace.