

Give to your King your judgment, O God

Psalm 72: 1-7, 18-19

Words and music: David Lee

RESPONSE

G Bm Am7 D Bm Em

Give to your King your judgment, O God: give to the King's son your love of right-ous-ness. 1. So may he judge the peo - ple with pro - bi - ty,

Am7 D Gsus4 G Fine VERSES F F/E F/D F/C

Bb F/A Gm7 Csus4 C A Dm7

so may he judge with e - qui - ty the poor: shower - ing on moun - tains

G7/B C Edim G/D G/B A7/C# A7 D D.C. al Fine

peace and pros-pe - ri - ty, la - vish-ing right - eous - ness from shore to shore.

2 May he defend the poor and the victimised,
rescue their children, crush the tyrant down;
while sun shall shine, from now till the end of time nations will hold his name in high renown.

3 May he come down like rain on the new-mown field,
as morning showers refresh the fruitful earth.
Each day that dawns his righteousness is revealed,
grace and abundant peace are given birth.

4 Praise to our God, creator of time and space;
Praise to the Son, through whom the world was made;
Praise to the Spirit, giver of light and grace:
God, Three in One, in majesty arrayed.